GETTING STARTED

CALL CENTRE

You can colour code your call types which will make it easier for you to identify the different call types in the call centre.

You can also set up your Service Level Agreement Monitor (SLA), if required. With this service configured, you can easily manage your SLA since selected employees will receive notification emails when calls have reached or gone over the SLA percentages.

GS20