

EQUIPMENT

ASSETS - CONVERT STOCK TO ASSET

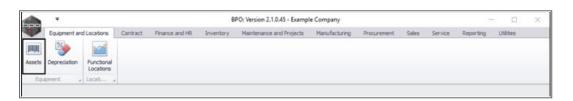

Stock v Asset: An asset is any serialised, non-stock item.

Convert Stock to Asset will set the stock item to an asset. This means that the item will be creating a revenue, for example, a machine for rental purposes.

Convert Asset to Stock will set the serialised item to a stock item. This means that the item will be sold without a rental or service agreement, for example, a machine for sales purposes.

If your company configuration is set up with an Asset Warehouse then the item will automatically be transferred there when the stock is converted. If your company does not have an Asset Warehouse set up then a receiving warehouse and bin must be selected.
