The graphic features a central orange hexagon with a white outline, containing a white wrench and hammer icon. Below this, the text "UNDER CONSTRUCTION" is written in bold black letters. Underneath the text is a line of five cartoon construction workers in yellow hard hats and orange shirts, engaged in various tasks: one is digging with a shovel, two are carrying a large white panel, one is pushing a wheelbarrow full of white material, and one is holding a pencil. The entire graphic is enclosed in a thin black rectangular border.
